Dear Mom & Dad,

While we were watching J.V. and listening to the wind howl I thought of a way for you to live here if Mike wins the election. We will rent our place and all of us will share a house (see examples). If Mary & Mike want their own place then the four of us can share a house somewhat smaller than the ones I've circled.

We had a blizzard with snow, high winds, and falling temperatures. This morning it was 10° with 40 mph winds and drifts enclosing our cars. Of course, we had much less snow than N.Y. and Boston so we were able to get to work. The storm is over but it won't get up to freezing this week.
